Believes that the post office should receive financial support

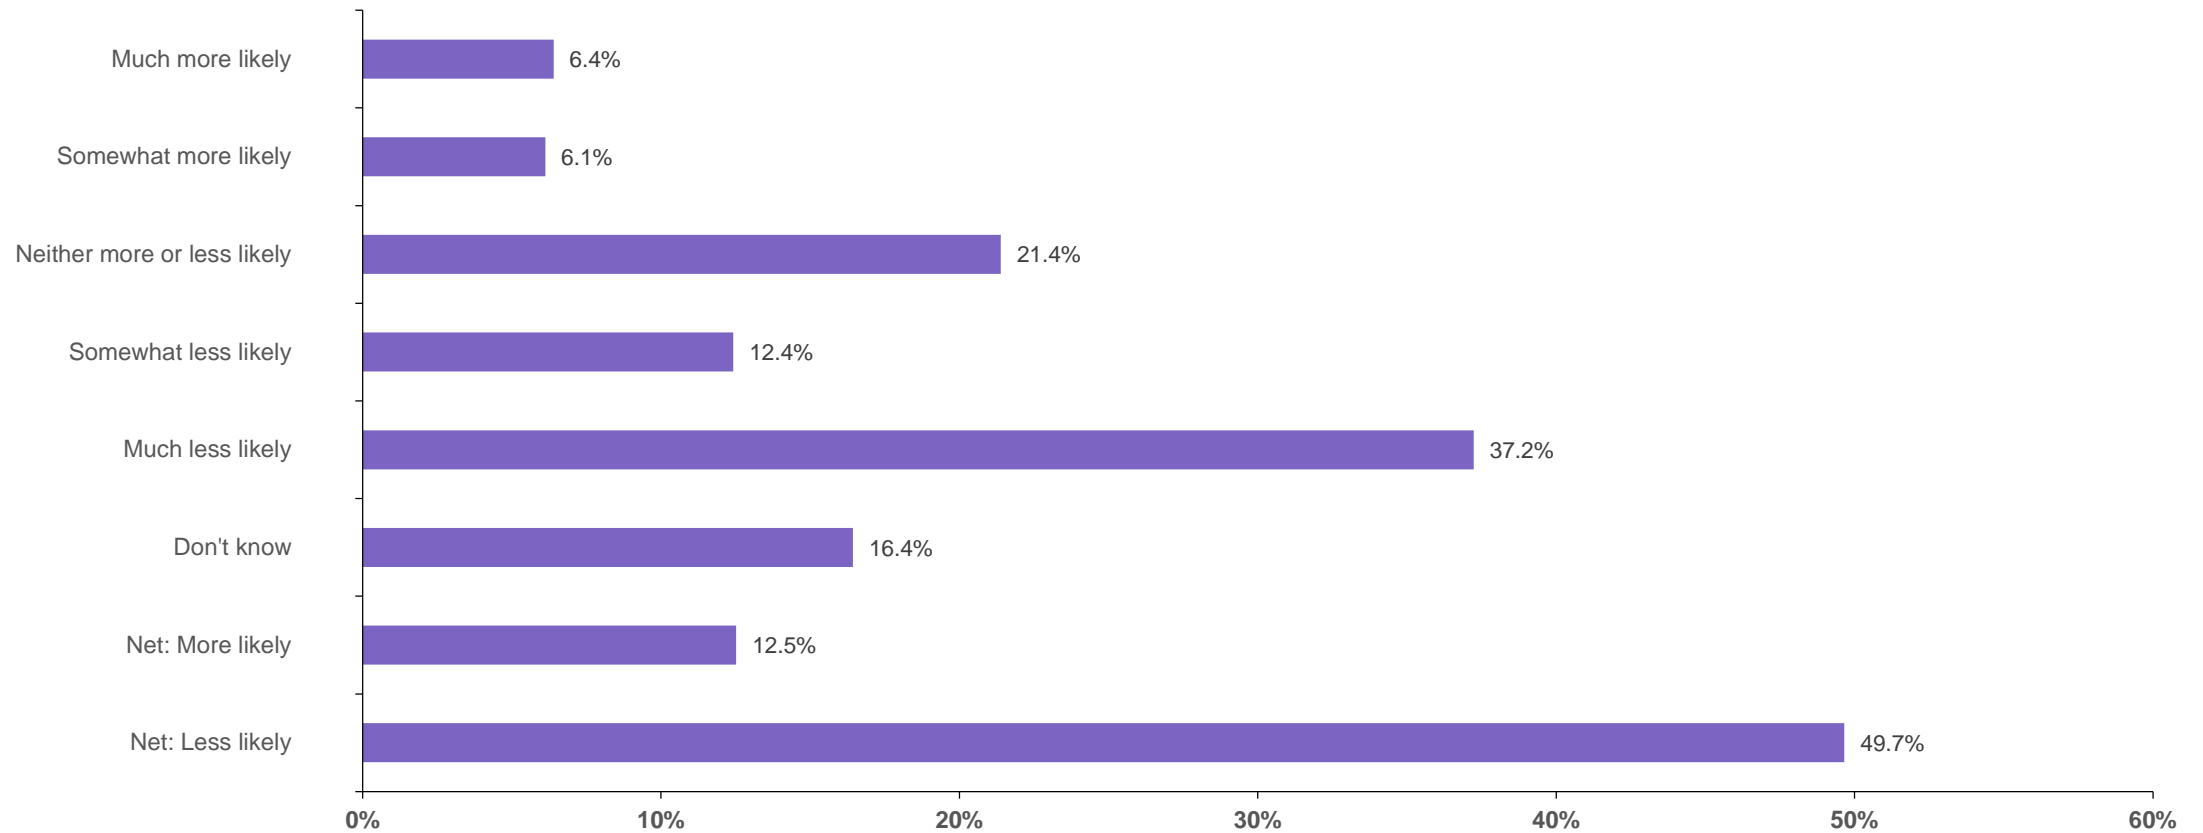

KAP_Q1. The Postmaster General Megan Brennan has recently warned lawmakers that the United States Postal Service (USPS) could run out of cash by the end of summer due to major financial setbacks caused by the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak. With this in mind, do you believe the post office should be included in the list of companies and organizations that receive financial support in the next Federal stimulus?

Unweighted base: All US Adults (1269)

More or less likely to vote for US senator

KAP_Q2. If the United States postal service were to go bankrupt by the end of the summer and your Senator or U.S. representative had voted against providing financial support for the Post Office, how much more or less likely would you be to vote for them?

Unweighted base: All US Adults (1269)
